

Final Report

3rd World Conference of Women's Shelters

3 – 6 November 2015
The Hague – The Netherlands

Connect & Act
to end violence against women

1000 participants from 115 countries around the world.

Queen Maxima and Crown Princess Mary speaking at the conference.

160 workshop to share knowledge and experiences.

Platform for survivors to share their stories.

High level speakers such as Hina Jilani

Breaking a world record together with Monique Wilson by dancing against violence with participants from 115 countries

World Conference of Women's Shelters

Ashley Judd

Emma Murphy

Famous survivors of violence sharing their story, encouraging other survivors to speak out.

Brave Miss World

Support from important men such as Dr. Denis Mukwege

Support of corporate world.

Support of the Dutch government, municipalities, women's shelters and other organisations for the conference and the Scholarship programme.

Women World News

3rd World Conference of Women's Shelters

First ever Women World News.

Connect & Act
to end violence against women

Cooperation with SeeMe Heartmovement

Video Message Executive Director
UN Women

PHUMZILE MLAMBO-NGCUKA
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, UN WOMEN

Peace Palace lit orange for Orange day and to highlight the 3rd World Conference of Women's Shelters being held in The Hague.

Asian Network

Two regional network conferences as pre-conference to the world conference

European Network

Connect & Act
to end violence against women

Presentation Global Datacount

Presentation of a Global Call for Action.

Two new network joined GNWS:
MENA Regional Network &
Network of Indigenuos women's shelters.

Attention of National and International media.

FACEBOOK: GLOBAL NETWORK OF WOMEN'S SHELTERS

TWITTER: @WOMENSSHELTERS

YOUTUBE: GLOBAL NETWORK OF WOMEN'S SHELTERS

Coverage of the conference on social media with more than 100.000 views.

FLICKR: GLOBAL NETWORK OF WOMEN'S SHELTERS

Enthusiastic feedback of participants.

Connect & Act
to end violence against women